

Child Development Evidence Binder Assignment

During your semester in Child Development, you will be assembling a portfolio of your work to keep as a reference source during your future and as a requirement for articulation credit. The community college will use this portfolio to document that you have met the competencies required to articulate in Child Development. You are assigned to bring a 1 ½-inch binder to class to serve as your portfolio. This binder may be left in class until the final day of the semester.

Below is a list of the specific assignments and handouts that are expected to be in your Child Development Portfolio. Place them in your portfolio in this order.
