

CFSD 21ST Century Learning Rubric
Skill: Global Awareness – Grades 3-12

Trait	Novice	Basic	Proficient	Advanced
Physical features, political boundaries, and resource attributes	Identifies physical features, political boundaries and resource attributes of content studied with assistance.	Identifies physical features, political boundaries and resource attributes of content studied with minimal errors.	Identifies and describes physical features, political boundaries and resource attributes of content studied.	Analyzes physical features, political boundaries and resource attributes of content studied.
Interconnectedness	Identifies examples of political, economic, military, social, and/or technological relationships pertinent to issues of globalization in the content studied with assistance.	Identifies examples of political, economic, military, social, and/or technological relationships pertinent to issues of globalization in the content studied with minimal errors.	Explains specific examples of political, economic, military, social, and/or technological relationships pertinent to issues of globalization in the content studied.	Analyzes political, economic, military, social, and/or technological relationships pertinent to issues of globalization in the content studied.
Current global issues	Identifies a current global issue with assistance.	Identifies and describes a current global issue.	Explains current global issues and their relevance to the content studied.	Analyzes current global issues and their relevance to the content studied, including historical context (if applicable).
Historical trends and issues	Identifies historical trends and issues pertinent to the content studied with assistance.	Identifies historical trends and issues pertinent to the content studied.	Explains historical trends and issues pertinent to the content studied.	Analyzes historical trends and issues pertinent to the content studied, including current impact (if applicable).